What's your tippie?

by Matt Nixon

Everyone loves that night in on the sofa with a corking box set

THERE'S nothing better than to pair some serious TV viewing time with a great easy-drinking wine. Close the curtains, stick on a box set and open something light and bright to reflect your much-needed sofa time. Just beware – like the box sets themselves, which can lead to binge-watching, these wines are super moreish.

The People's Choice Wine Awards 2024, revealed earlier this week, have shared some perfect choices from their "Easy Weekday" and "Big Night In" categories.

Founder Janet Harrison says: "Here are some recommendations for such an occasion (if you can call watching TV an occasion!). And they've all been voted for by UK wine consumers – that's people like you. They are from a selection of the top wines in the Easy Weekday and Big Night In categories from our 2024 awards.

"There's even a box of wine in the line-up, – perfect for a single glass, without having to finish the whole bottle (as there isn't one!)."

Thanks, Janet. Happy viewing... and sipping.

UNMISSABLE SIX-PART WINE SERIES

1 Invivo SJP Sauvignon Blanc (£12, 12.5%)

SJP stands for Sarah Jessica Parker but this fabulous Kiwi sauvignon blanc is no Hollywood vanity project. Soft and fruity (apricots, citrus and passion fruit to the fore) with a subtle oakiness, this dry white is ideal for sipping. Available from Wine Delivered.

2 Cramele Recas Zana Feteasca Regala (£10, 11.5%)

This light, dry Romanian white is made using local Feteasca regala grapes – loosely translated as princess and an increasingly popular UK variety. Fresh with a zingy acidity, and just a hint of sweetness, with a crisp, savoury finish. Available from Good Pair Days.

3 Nero D'Avola, When In Rome 2.25lt (£26.99, 13.5%)

Nero D'Avola is Sicily's best-known red grape and this full-bodied beauty, boasting cherries, blackcurrants and just a hint of pepper, is perfect for a night in with friends. Drink alone and it'll keep you going for weeks. Available from Waitrose.

4 Waitrose Blueprint Grüner Veltliner (£8.99, 12.5%)

Bone dry, fresh and aromatic to boot, this Austrian grape makes for a fabulous medium-bodied white wine with plenty of fruit (peach and lime to the fore) and a mineral finish. Delicious and perfect with nibbles. Available from Waitrose.

5 M&S Found Alicante Bouschet (£8, 14%)

Another deep, bold and full-bodied wine, this Portuguese red bursts with ripe fruitiness on the nose and palate. Smooth, delicious and good value, too. Available from M&S and Ocado.

6 Argentinian Malbec by Amazon (£7.99, 14%)

Now you can get your box sets and your wine from a single source! This Argentinian malbec's a treat. Full-bodied and intense with plenty of red fruit flavours and a floral bouquet, ideal for sipping or pairing with food. Available from Amazon.
